RE UNKNOWN

ab Failing, Revolvers Are Used By Attackers—Sever-Arrests Made of Those nder Suspicion.

PRO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Major Stack, an Egyptian officer, government of Sudan and String, died last night in a hospital.
Stack was attacked yesterday by a group of men who failed to achieve their purpose with pistols, opened fire on him with revolvers. General Stack was killed in the abdomen, the bullet entering under the lung. From the his condition was serious and was very slight hope this morning that he would recover. After an operation, performed yesterday, he passed a fairly good night.
The loss of blood was so great that transfusions were necessary.

The whole country is profoundly grieved at the outrage and the brutality of the situation is everywhere realized. The press deplore the crime in the strongest terms. The Zaghoul papers unanimously declare Egypt's honor has been dishonored by the crime and their exemplary punishment. Nothing they assert will be sufficient to wash away the blood-stain on the country's honor.

DEEVE INTO ENGLISH HISTORY

ality of Chicago to Study onics of Old Time Eng-d.

ICAGO, Nov. 21. (AP)—New on social, economics and industrial conditions in England, during the last of over five centuries, is being obtained when carefully made of nearly 2,000 pages, once the property of the Bacon family. This collection, which has been in England for many years, was purchased for the University of Chicago by Martin A. Ryerland.
The middle of the sixteenth century Sir Nicholas Bacon, afterward Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, and Queen Elizabeth, acquired a large estate surrounding the village of the Abbot of St. Edmunds, which had been possessed of the monastery before the Conquest. He retained the deeds, characters, manuscripts and other documents connected with the property. His son, Sir Nicholas, who was a half-brother of Lord Francis Bacon, acquired by marriage additional land-rights and the documents related to it. The collection was increased until the end of the seventeenth century, when the property passed into the hands of Thomas Holt, father of Lord Justice Holt.
The collection of England is a collection of equal extent and continuity. It is said at the University. There are more than 400,000 of which 400 are on parchment. There are 741 court records of 19 manors in Kent and Suffolk from the thirteenth to the sixteenth centuries.
There are 148 family letters of the Bacon family. Among historical documents are the original deeds and other documents of the Bacon family. The collection is now in the hands of the University of Chicago.

Two Thousand Dollar Apron Used by Mill Worker

Half-Million In Securities In Youngstown City Park.

BOND APRON

Value of Find Unknown to Finders—Released After Questioning—Stolen From a Pennsylvania Bank.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 21.— Bonds and stocks valued at nearly a half million dollars and said to have been stolen from Bentley's Bank at Springboro, Pa., were found in the city park here and have been recovered by postal authorities, it was announced today by Postmaster Westwood. Postal Inspector Tavinor said that the men who found the securities were all foreigners and not fully aware of the value of their find, as one of men, a worker in a steel mill, was found wearing two one thousand dollar liberty bonds as an apron.
The postal authorities said that the men found the bonds hidden in the bushes Sunday morning in the park. The finders were released after being questioned as the authorities were convinced that their story was genuine.

The securities found account for everything stolen from the Springboro bank as reported over the telephone.

Y. M. TO CHOOSE A NEW COUNCIL

Important Constitutional Changes to Take Place In American Y. M.
C. A.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)— Important constitutional changes at fecting the 2,000 Young Men's Christian Associations of North America will shortly take place, according to information supplied today by Y. M. C. A. leaders. At meetings to be held December 3 & 4 at Buffalo, N. Y., a National Council of 345 men will be organized. From 30 to 40 members of this council will compose an interim board which will succeed the International committee as the national general agency of the association movement. These changes are in accordance with provisions of a constitution formulated at Cleveland, O., in October, 1922, and voted this year by referendum of the association.

The meetings at Buffalo are expected to bring to reality improvements in organization and policy in whose planning are represented the experience and study of thousands of lay and employed officers of the various American associations. The developments are directed to the problem of how the world's largest lay movement, while maintaining decentralization, may achieve greater unity and better meet increasing responsibilities. They center mainly upon the make up of the general legislative body heretofore the triennial international convention, and upon the character and functions of what are known as the general agencies. These include the present International committee and 44 state, interstate and territorial organizations.

The International committee acting under the International convention as the national general agency of the movement for nearly half a century, comprises upward of 200 leading business and professional men of the United States and Canada. The new National Council will be the agent of the associations in the United States, just as the Canadian council is purely a national body. The International convention will continue as a means of dealing with common affairs of the movement in the two countries.

GRANGE VOTES "NO"

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 21.— By an overwhelming vote the National Grange today, placed itself squarely on record against the child labor amendment to the Federal constitution. The organization pledged its most vigorous efforts against its ratification.

HAS PRAISE FOR EDUCATION WORK

Mrs. J. C. Lary, National Chairman of Americanization Approves of Movement.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 21.— (AP)—Approval of Educational Week has been received by Mrs.
William Hearn, past War Mother of Kentucky from Mrs. J. C. Lary, of Winchester, national chairman of Americanization, of the American War Mothers. Mrs. Hearn reported today. Mrs. Lary declared:

"It is necessary that our organization take a part in this Educational Week for believing in America and loving this nation with sincerity, we feel it is not only our duty but a privilege to bring the thought before our mothers and assist in every way we are able, and at all times will cooperate with those who have the program in their local communities."

Mrs. Hearn in chairman of legislation of the war mothers and although the next legislature will not convene until 1926 some bills are being prepared at this time, she said. She is also a member of the blind war veterans' board.

A statement from Margaret N.
McCluer, national war mother, Kansas City, Mo., has been received by Mrs. Hearn, she said, reading:

"I do not think it is necessary to call the attention to a mother of the need for constant emphasis to implant in the minds of our children, respect for constitutional authority and obedience which means the preservation of our nation."

"The children in our schools today will soon be called upon to administer the present laws and to make new ones. We can greatly assist the schools in the effort to give preparation for this vital responsibility. It is only as the ideals taught in the schools are brought into practice in the home and community that they become real forces in the life of the child.
American Education Week gives us a splendid opportunity to do this."

MORGANS FINANCE FRANCE

Paris, Nov. 21. (AP)—Finance Minister Clement has arranged with Morgan interests for a loan to France of one hundred million dollars at seven percent. The conditions of the loan will be announced later. The French cabinet authorized the loan, according to the announcement.

Must Be Wise Hen To Escape Autos

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Nov. 21.
(AP)—Although the reason a chicken crosses the road never has been settled to the satisfaction of everyone, the fact that most fowls attempt to get on the other side of the highway is responsible for thousands of dollars loss to farmers in this part of the state, and many other sections.

"Automobile mortality" is one of the chief sources of loss to poultrymen, it is declared, and two protective steps are being taken. One is the removal of the chicken pens to points far distant from the road, and the other the breeding of birds that have shown, under observation, a readiness to stay on their own side of the road when an automobile comes along.

Tests made with nearly 100 flocks of a certain breed revealed that a half dozen chickens which went across the road. With other breeds there were less than a half dozen of entire flocks along the road which did not try to cross.
Some of the farmers are not slow to realize the difference are returning to those breeds which "stay put" and avoid the losses.
On farms along main highways the losses to flocks from motor cars has been as high as 50 per cent. In some cases a single passing automobile has killed four chickens.

Death Claims Wife Of Former President

Mrs. Warren Harding
Died at Eight Fifty-Five This Morning.

NATION GRIEVES

Endeared Herself to Hearts of the American People When She Was "The First Lady of the Land."

MARION, O., Nov. 21 (AP)— Mrs. Warren G. Harding died at the White Oaks Sanitarium of Dr. Carl Sawyer here today after fighting for life for more than two weeks.
Her death was due directly to kidney ailment, from which she had suffered for years and which nearly resulted fatally while she was mistress of the White House. Mrs.
Harding died peacefully, Dr.
Sawyer said.

Clifford Kling, Mrs. Harding's brother, George B. Christian, Jr., secretary to the late President Harding, Mrs. Mary Sawyer, widow of the late Brigadier General Charles Sawyer and Dr. Carl Sawyer were present when the embalming was completed.

The arrangements for the funeral were immediately taken over by Mr. Kling and Mr. Christian. Funeral services will be held in Epworth Methodist Episcopal church at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.
Rev. Jesse Swank, pastor of the church and who conducted the funeral services of President Harding, will officiate. Mrs. Harding has been a member of the church since childhood.

While no definite announcement has been made, it is expected that Mrs. Harding's body will be placed temporarily in the receiving vault in Marion cemetery beside the body of the late president. The body was removed from the sanitarium to the home of Mrs. Frank Longshore, a niece, early today.

Jury Disagrees In the England Case

MARION, O., Nov. 21 (AP)— Florence Kling, Harding's wife of the twenty-fifth president of the United States, died at eight fifty-five this morning.
Mrs. Warren G. Harding was known as one of the most energetic mistresses who ever presided over the White House. From her first day in the executive mansion she found something to occupy every minute of her time. She instituted various changes and brought about a return to the customary social functions of pre-war days which the necessities of war had compelled Mrs. Wilson to dispense with.
Mrs. Harding was probably one of the most tireless workers of her husband's presidential campaign force in 1920. She accompanied him on all his speaking tours and was foremost in directing the famous front porch parties at the Marion, Ohio, headquarters. Later after Mr. Harding had been inaugurated, she usually accompanied him to all social and social functions, invariably being present whenever he addressed congress. In fact, from the day of her marriage to the editor of the Marion Star, she was tireless in her efforts in his behalf.

Mrs. Harding was born in Marion 62 years ago of a sturdy stock of pioneers, her father, Amos King, being one of the first settlers of the town. She married Warren Harding in 1891 when things did not look too bright for him, as he had just taken over the ownership of the Star and it was said to have been loaded down with mortgages.

Mrs. Harding was slight of build but erect of carriage. Though her hair was silvering, her eyes were bright and clear and her manner vivacious. She was fond of flowers and colors. Her favorite color was a light, bright blue, and when she was purchasing the White House trousseau she showed such a partiality to that color that immediately it became fashionable as "Harding blue."

She was a constant lover of children. One time, receiving from a distracted French mother a plea to aid her son, imprisoned in this country, Mrs. Harding investigated the lad's record, and finding he had merit, enlisted the aid of Mayor Hylan of New York, where the boy was in jail, to have him released.

Mrs. Harding was prominent in social and philanthropic circles, and was a constant hostess at the White House, at receptions, dinners and garden parties, although the personal tastes of both the Hardings was toward a quieter and more withdrawn life. She devoted much of her time to girls' work and was the national head of the Girl Scout organization.

While Mrs. Harding was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, it was the custom of the Hardings usually to attend in Washington the Baptist church, of which the President is a member.

Even Boys of Nile Loved Their Beer

LONDON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Prohibition may or may not have been in effect 3,200 years ago, but recent gifts to the British Museum indicate that the ancient Egyptians were at least affected by a thirst for something stronger than 2.75 percent beer.
One of the gifts is a pottery pocket flask, similar in shape to those exhibited in the windows of many jewelers today and of sufficiently large capacity to gratify the most thirsty. The other consists of fragments of a great vessel upon which is boldly painted the inscription:
"Beer Which Ignores Dreams." The inscription, in the form of early hieroglyphics, depicts a jar, with three strokes to indicate a number of jars; then the symbol for "ignores," an owl representing knowledge and a pair of hands turned down to denote "nothing doing"—a chicken, denoting sound, and an eye, denoting wakefulness.
Officials of the Museum vouch for the translation of the devices.

BEHAN GETS TWENTY YEARS IN SING SING

Police Fail to Connect Him With the Lawson Murder.

WIFE IS CONNECTED

Will Be Tried As An Accomplice In the Johnson Robbery at the Hotel Atlantic.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)— Harry Behan, convicted of having robbed Mrs. Howard Johnson of $6,000 worth of gems at the Hotel Atlantic six months ago, was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment at Sing-Sing today.

After the sentence was pronounced, Assistant District Attorney Garrison announced that Behan had received information that Behan had accompanied Mrs. Louise Lawson, six hours before she was strangled to death in a fashionable apartment in this city last winter.

Police have not succeeded in connecting Behan with the slaying and the Lawson murder remains a mystery. Garrison said that Behan's 19-months bride was awaiting trial as an accomplice in the Johnson robbery.

VETERANS! SEE TO COMPENSATION

It is Imperative From the Standpoint of Economy That This Be Attended To Without Delay.

To date there has been received from the 4,500,000 veterans only 1, 300,000 applications for Adjusted Compensation. There are 25,000 clerks on duty, ready to receive, verify and certify at least 30,000 applications daily.

It is imperative from the standpoint of economy that all veterans avail themselves of this opportunity right now. A further reason for prompt application upon the veteran, is that the face value of the Insurance certificate is dependent upon the age of the veteran at the time of his application, the amount of insurance decreasing as the age increases.

If the veterans intends to apply for this Adjusted Compensation, he is requested to submit application now. Recruiting offices are ready to handle all cases.

Blanks can be obtained at the following Army Recruiting Stations: Cincinnati, Ohio, Federal building.

Dayton, Ohio, 300 West 3rd St.
Portsmouth, Ohio, Federal building.

Ashland, Ky., Federal building.
Harlan, Ky., 122 North Main street.

Hazard, Ky., 116 South Main
street.
Lexington, Ky., Federal building.
Middlesboro, Ky., Federal building.

Recruiting Sergeants on duty at the above stations will be glad to help the veterans with the preparation of their applications.

Today.

BURNED JAIL

Denies Desire to Burn Jail—Narrow Escape For Jailer's Wife and Prisoners and the Structure Burns.

BOWLING GREEN, Nov. 21. (A P)—Theodore Bailey, 26, charged with arson was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary after he was convicted of having set fire to the Edmonson jail last September.

At the time of the fire Bailey was being held in the jail on a charge of housebreaking. The jailer's wife who was asleep on the first floor of the jail when the blaze broke out and escaped in her night clothing. She later returned to the second floor and released the prisoners. Bailey was captured several hours afterwards.

Bailey told the officers after his capture that a desire to see his baby led him to burn a hole in the side of the building in an attempt to escape. He denied an attempt to burn the building.

EXCHANGE BREAKS RECORD

New York, Nov. 21. (AP)— Breaking all records for the volume of business transacted in the post-election boom, the stock market today swept upward to new high levels under the leadership of the lower-priced railroad shares. Sales on the New York stock exchange totaled 2,594,300 shares, the heaviest day's trading since December 31, 1916, when the frenzied trading which followed the "leak" of President Wilson's peace note sent sales above the 3,000,000 share mark.

Fire Department Renders Timely Aid

A fire occurred Thursday morning at the house owned by Tobe Hall, which is situated on 26th St. and Exeter Avenue. It is generally spoken of as the Percival property. Mr. Will Britain, a son-in-law of Mr. Hall occupies the home at the present time.
Some one thoughtlessly emptied a can of live coals on the trash pile.
The wind fanned the sparks and soon a blaze was started which spread to the house. The fire department rendered immediate assistance with the result that the blaze was soon extinguished. Not much damage was done.

Flee Fatherland For Better Living

BERLIN, Nov. 21. (AP)—Emigration from Germany is advancing by leaps and bounds. Within one month the number of Germans hoping to find better luck elsewhere has increased from 1,373 to 1,955. The state of Wurtemberg and the Rhineland country furnish the largest quotas.
In the Rhineland industry has been hard hit by the occupation of the French and it has proven difficult to get the wheels turning properly again. Many wage earners, despairing of better days, are leaving for North and South America, Russia and other countries in quest of happiness.
That the Wurtemberg quota is large is less surprising. The people of that state always have been characterized by the "wanderlust."

Cut-Out Now Has Legal Adviser

LEXINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)— Judge Edward Orrer, former chief justice of the Kentucky Court of Appeals has been engaged by the

STILL SHOOT IN CHICAGO'S GANG WAR

Another Death In the Windy City Under
world Warfare.

BULLET RIDDLED

New York Gunmen Released In O'Bannon Murder Case —Detective Chief Is Demoted.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21. (AP)—The shooting to death of one man and the wounding of another yesterday were attributed by the police to the latest outbreak in Chicago's gang war.

The body of Tony Mancuso was found riddled with bullets in the South Side alley. He wore a valuable ring, carried a gold watch and his wallet containing $37.50 had not been disturbed. A few blocks away a man, who is believed to be Michael Mikovitch, was found unconscious, with several bullet wounds.
He refused to discuss the shooting, saying that "my friends will take care of me."

Meanwhile, Frank Uale and Sam Palaccia, both of New York, who had been held in connection with the murder of Dion O'Bannon were released, when they proved an alibi. Charles H. Flasher, a Pullman conductor, testified that the men had been passengers in his car, Chicago bound, two days after the killing.

William Schoenke, new chief of detectives, had no comment to make on the release of the men, but stated that he was working out transfer plans which would shake up his entire department. Michael Hughes, who yesterday resigned from the department after being demoted from detective chief to police captain, said today that he may reconsider his decision.

BERLIN ARTISTS OT SHUN BAZARRE

There is Exhibited a Decided Return to Normalcy in German Art.

BERLIN, Nov. 20. (AP)—There is a decided return to normalcy in German art, if this year's "Jury-free" exhibition in the Berlin Glass Palace is any criterion. This is a free-for-all exhibition in which no jury passes in advance upon what may be exhibited or what should be excluded. Its founders propose to give every artist a chance to show the public what he has done. The exhibition therefore offers an excellent birds-eye view of current tendencies in German art.

What strikes one especially at this year's exhibition is the fact that among the 1728 works exhibited or what should be excluded. Its founders propose to give every artist a chance to show the public what he has done. The exhibition therefore offers an excellent bird-eye view of current tendencies in German art.

What strikes one especially at
this year's exhibition is the fact
that among the 1728 works exhibited, there are very few of a repulsive or freakish nature. There seems to be even a return to the Impressionist school. This is especially true of landscape painting, which is for the most part as realistic as the work of Liebermann or Claus Younger painters, like Ernst Barthelme, or Gustav Grosse, however, seem to employ sharper contrasts of color than did the earlier generation of German painters.

The preponderance of conservative easel-painting does not mean, however, that there are not many experiments at work which strike the eye as being new. There are pictures for instance, destined for church walls which are as ugly as the wonders how the original artist expected to make religious pictures with them. Such pictures have been exhibited in the public salons of art, and are fast becoming a part of the art of the future.

But there are other things to note. On the other hand, there is a tendency to get away from the old and to look for new and fresh.

THE BETTING EVIL

Betting is an expression of personal opinion. He who makes a bet is confident that the conclusion that he has arrived at is much more accurate than that of his fellowmen. Also the element of chance enters.

Betting is as old as the human race. Our antediluvian ancestors wagered stone hatchets to nose rings on the annual dinosaur classic. The Roman populace gambled on the outcome of the gladiatorial combats.

"Iacta alia est" expressed the Roman philosophy. English royalty bet on the outcome of the royal tournaments. One noble knight is known to have lost a suit of armor over the outcome of a certain combat. If it were not for this difference of opinion life would be flat and stale. It is differences of opinion which makes the world go round. We would not change it if we could. But like other habits betting can be carried to extremes.

There is to be a football game in Middlesboro on Thanksgiving Day. There is a great deal of speculation as to the outcome of this affair. It is rumored that large amounts of money are being wagered upon the outcome of this contest. This may be done through loyalty to the home town and again it may be done to satisfy the sporting instinct of the individual. At any rate it has a bad effect on the home team. Not only does it commercialize high school sport but it places great responsibility on the players. Any boy knowing that an error on his part will lose money for his friends is going to be a nervous wreck before the game starts.

School authorities who have heard these rumors have rightfully threatened to call off the game if this practice is not ended. Any serious minded person upon sober second thought will see that this betting mania may deprive the boys of the game which they have looked forward to all the season. It is not fair to the team, to the school, or to the city. Let us express our loyalty by means of cheering and flag waving rather than by betting sums of money on the home boys.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

By E. R. Waite, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce.

THAT a city must be advertised the same as any business.

THAT advertising facts, not fancies, is what brings results.

THAT modern cities aim to attract tourists. Great sums are spent in telling tourists of the attractions to be found there.

THAT tourist travel is increasing every year, and in order for a city to get its share of this remunerative traffic, it must have ample hotel and camping facilities.

THAT tourists will detour out of their way to stop where they can find good hotel or camping accommodations.

THAT today the wide-awake cities are not waiting for the tourist to discover them accidentally, but tell through advertising, their many advantages and attractions.

THAT cities that do not prepare for this trade are short-sighted. If business principles are not applied in the securing of new business for a city, that city will not get far.

CITY BUILDERS of today are men who take a broad view of life, who realize that only through the development of better business can a bigger city be built.

LIGHTING THE BATH ROOM

Have you ever watched your father shave? Does he try to keep shadows away by turning his face this way and that? Or can he shave comfortably and easily with a smile on his face like the man in the second picture? Shaving is really the best test of lighting in bathrooms. A man shaves each side of his face and under his chin, and if he is to see well, he needs a light on each side down low enough to light underneath the chin.

Lighting the mirror in the bathroom is exactly the same problem as lighting the mirror in the bedroom, and two bracket fixtures are needed for good lighting—one at either side of the mirror at eye level or a little above. The fixtures should point upward and should have long dense milk-white shades open at the top to conceal the 60-watt "bulbs" inside.

If the bathroom is large, you may have a fixture in the center of the ceiling just like the fixture used in the kitchen. If this is properly put in and equipped with a bulb of 75-watts or more, it will furnish good general lighting all over the room on occasions when the mirror is not being used.

When sister goes to curl her hair in front of the mirror, does she find it necessary to take the bulb out of the light to connect her electric iron?

If she does, she probably does not curl her hair in the evening, because many bathrooms are lighted by only one fixture. And if your bathroom has two fixtures, and sister uses one for a curling iron, then she must twist and turn her head because she cannot see well when only one is used for lighting.

That curling iron of sister's is just one of the handy little electric appliances which should be provided with an outlet of their own—a convenience outlet 36 inches or more above the floor, so that good lighting is always ready when it is most needed.

LIGHTING THE SUN ROOM

In the sun room we usually want a ceiling fixture to give us general lighting and to flood the whole room with warm, soft light and an atmosphere of cheerfulness. We also need lighting from portable lamps for reading or sewing, or as decorative spots of light and color around the room. Do you remember the lesson which told how to light the living room? It was much the same as this, for the sun room or sun porch is really an other living room in most homes.

In the sun room, however, the furniture and decorations usually require lighting fixtures which will look well with wicker and cretonne and which will make the sun room feel like a sun room even after dark.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON—All sorts of interpretations have been put upon the result of the recent election.

Probably the significance most generally attached to it however, is that it voiced the people's desire to be done with blocs in Congress, and for a definite undivided party control in legislative affairs.

Whether that is to be the result remains to be seen. On paper the Republicans have a clear workable majority in both houses. So did they in the last Congress.

But the "farm bloc" and the "progressive bloc" which refused to follow the edicts of the administration's party bosses made this majority ineffective by the balance of power they achieved.

That one or the other of these blocs, or a combination of both, may accomplish the same control in the newly elected Congress is no means impossible—nor, on likely.

So far as the "farm bloc" at least is concerned, it is evident that its leader, Senator Capper of Kansas, considers the election carried an endorsement of its activities so convincing as to make its continuance inevitable.

The entire Kansas delegation, which supported the so-called "farm bloc," was returned to Congress—all by increased majorities," says Capper in an analysis of what he terms "The Nation's Verdict."

Of his own re-election, largely as a result of his fight for rail-rate revision and other measures specifically designed to assist agriculture—all of which were endorsed by the farm bloc which he headed, he says:

"When on a previous occasion my home state voted me a majority of 162,000, that was thought

Are Hostesses at Afternoon Bridge

Mrs. F. P. Seales, Mrs. H. H. Overton and Mrs. Edward Yeager are hostesses this afternoon at a bridge party given at the home of Mrs. Seales. The invited guests numbered 70, including the out of town visitors, who were: Mrs. D. G. Colson, Asheville, N. C.; Mrs. James P. Simms, Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. Julian Holston, Edgefield, S. C.; and Mrs. Rice Johnson, Mrs. Neil Bennett, Miss Laura Bingham, all of Pineville. Also Mrs. W. R. Barrigar, from Cincinnati, who is a house guest of Mrs. Seales; and Mrs. Harry Moss of Johnson City. A salad course will be served.

Mrs. D. G. Colson Gives Enjoyable Tea

Among the pleasant events of the social season, was the tea given on Thursday afternoon in the parlors of the Cumberland hotel by Mrs. D. G. Colson, complimentary to her guests, Mrs. James P. Simms, of Birmingham, Alabama, and Mrs. Julian Holston of Edgefield, S. C.

Mrs. Colson was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Simms, Mrs. Holston, Mrs. O. B. Hollingsworth and Mrs. J. P. Brosheer.

Mrs. A. Arthur and Mrs. F. M. Gordon presided at the tea and coffee tables.

Mrs. M. S. Hollingsworth, Mrs. O. B. Hollingsworth, Jr., Mrs. William Hollingsworth and Mrs. J. R. Callison greeted the guests as they entered—while a bevy of charming young ladies assisted in serving. Little Misses Ola Marie Hollingsworth and Bessie Vael held the card trays.

Mrs. J. T. Ahlerson, Miss Ray Taylor, Miss Virginia Warren and Prof. Sormann rendered delightful strains of music throughout the entire afternoon.

A color scheme of pink and orchid was carried out in the floral decorations and ices.

Woman's Bible Class Enjoy Birthday Party

The Women's Wesley Bible class of the M. E. Church South, held a birthday party for the class and its friends in Kenton Hall Thursday afternoon, November 20th, celebrating the eighth birthday of the class. The president, Mrs. M. D. Brown, called the meeting for a brief business session.

Mrs. Brosheer, the treasurer, gave a report of what the class has accomplished. The hymn, "He Watched Me," was sung. Mrs. Hinks played the accompaniment. Scripture reading by the president was followed by prayer by Mrs. McIntire. It being so close to Thanksgiving, the spirit was carried out in the tableaux showing the pilgrims and their customs in the home. Each character was dressed in the costumes of the day.

Next appeared the personification of the spirit of the present day. This depicted a beautifully decorated table laden with fruits, grains and other good things to eat. This was in striking contrast to the simple Puritan fare.

Miss Lola Smith dressed in a costume representing the spirit of thanksgiving stood behind the table. Miss Mary Skeen sang sweetly, "Come All Ye Faithful." A beautiful birthday cake baked by Mrs. J. B. Phipps with eight candles on it was carried and placed on the table by the two pilgrims, Knot McEloney and Marion Gilson.

Every one joined in singing the oxology which was followed by prayer lead by Dr. Savage. There followed a social hour during which

To Carry On House-to-House Canvass

The community service committee of the Red Cross have been working the schools, the factories and the various organizations of the city this week.

The ministers of the different churches have been asked to include mention of the work being carried on by the Red Cross in their Sunday services.

The Woman's club after a very careful thought have prepared a fine program centering on Red Cross work to be given at the next meeting which is to be held Monday afternoon. Beginning Tuesday there will be a house to house canvass made for memberships, thus bringing the campaign to a whirlwind close.

Mexico Adopting American Methods

HAMBURG, Nov. 20. (AP)—Mexico is becoming rapidly "Americanized," in the opinion of Dr. Karl Sapper, geographer of the University of Wurzburg, who has recently returned from a tour of Central America, Colombia and Venezuela. The tour was undertaken at the request of the Geographical Society of Hamburg.

Prof. Sapper had not been in Mexico since 1902. The outstanding impression gained was that of the infiltration of United States while the German, Spanish, and English contingents in Mexico seemed to him to be about the same as in 1902, and the increase in the French colony as only slight, the North Americans are playing a much greater role than formerly.

Despite the latest of Yankees, which Dr. Sapper says he found among a part of the native population, "the process of Americanization is in full swing," he declared.

Another change which struck the German scientist was the spread of bolshevik ideas throughout Mexico.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the mucosaless Calotabs, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried to say that it is the magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vast-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted. —Adv.

WOMEN HELD IN SHOOTING

LEBANON, Tenn., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Pearl Baskin, a widow, is under arrest here Wednesday as the result of the fatal shooting at her home last night of Paul Patterson, 21 years old, of Springfield, Mo., a law student of Cumberland University and son of a former congressman from Missouri.

Patterson died of two bullet wounds at a hospital three hours after going to Mrs. Baskin's home. Hospital officials said that he declined to make a statement.

According to the police, Mrs. Baskin said that she had warned Patterson to remain away from her home and that when he went there last night she fired two shots. The wounded youth was found on a nearby street by R. H. Swann, who is accredited with saying that he and Patterson had been together earlier in the night and had purchased a half pint of whiskey. He was held as a material witness. They were not together at the time of the shooting, he said.

Mrs. Baskin turned over to the authorities a small pistol from which the shots had been fired.

SMARTNESS IS STUDIOUSLY UNSTUDIED

THAT unstudied smartness which is the result of much study marks the informal grace of this ensemble noted at a smart Paris restaurant. It is of grey Cote Contour, a heavy ribbed silk of considerable substance and warmth, and is subtly and effectively trimmed with gold and silver lame ribbon.

Moreover it possesses that admirable attribute of dual personality which is more and more a desideratum in the modern wardrobe. For the little dress worn beneath the coat is surprisingly—quite sleeveless so that it becomes automatically appropriate for afternoon or tea dance wear, while with the coat which is of the straight-line smart sport variety, the costume is suitable for early morning activities. So Madame may motor in to town from her villa, do a morning's shopping, have lunch at some restaurant where the smart world foregathers, even attend a dance, and be quite in the picture, which make up the undoubted perfection of this ensemble, the dress is of the most simple but charming lines, made in coat fashion, with the surprise closing of which we are seeing many examples lately. Its only adornment is the belt of gold and silver lame ribbon, which is finished with the charmingly soft touch of a large bow and each ends treated in the same manner. Of the coat there is not much to remark, except that it is admirable in its type. The whole little bit in the same material as the costume completes an ensemble at once correct and charming.

CHRISTMAS PLUM PUDDING

One cupful of finely-chopped beef suet, two cupfuls of fine bread crumbs, one heaping cupful of sugar, one cupful of seeded raisins, one cupful of seedless raisins, one cupful of chopped blanched almonds, half a cupful of citron, a teaspoonful of salt, one of cloves, two of cinnamon, half a grated nutmeg and four well-beaten eggs. Dissolve a level teaspoonful of soda in a tablespoonful of warm water. Flour the fruit thoroughly from a pint of flour; then mix the remainder as follows: In a large bowl put the well-beaten eggs, sugar, spices and salt in one cupful of milk. Stir in the fruit, chopped nuts, bread crumbs and suet, one after the other, until all are used, putting in the dissolved soda last and adding enough flour to make the fruit stick together, which will take all the pint. Roll or steam four hours. Serve with any well-flavored sauce.

MRS. F. D. BART, JR.

PLUM PUDDING

1 pound of raisins
1 pound of currants
1 pound brown sugar
1 lb. of beef suet 1/2 lb. of flour
1-2 pound stale bread crumbs 1-2 pound of flour
3-4 pound chopped apples 8 whole eggs
1 glass bourbon whiskey 1 pint sweet milk
1 pint wine
2 nut mugs grated
1 tablespoon of nutmeg
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1-2 teaspoon salt.

Cream butter and sugar together, beat eggs very light separately, add salt milk to the whites, stirring in flour and grated bread, add creamed sugar and butter, then suet and fruit alternately, then spice and liquor, then balance of milk and stir well all together. Steam 6 hours.

MRS. ELLEN R. DRAIN.

THANKSGIVING PUDDING

Cream 1-2 cup of butter, add one cup of sugar, one cup of jam, one half cup of milk, beat with one level teaspoon of soda, three eggs beaten separately, one cup of flour, one cup of shelled pecans, one of raisins, one teaspoon of vanilla. Bake slowly and serve with caramel sauce and whipped cream.

MRS. ERNEST WARREN.

WOODFORD PUDDING

3 eggs, leaving out whites one tea cup of sugar 1-2 tea cup of butter
1 tea cup of flour
1 tea cup jam
1-2 teaspoon of soda
1-2 tea cups of sour cream.

Cinnamon and nutmeg enough to taste. Bake slowly in pudding pan and serve with cream or sauce. Make a meringue of the whites.

MRS. S. W. GIVENS.

Beat yolks of 2 eggs with cup of sugar to cream. Add stiffly beaten whites. Mix with 2 cups of bread crumbs, 1 cup finely chopped suet or 1-2 cup of butter. Swedes May Invade Our Soccer Fields

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 21. (AP)—A visit to America by a picked team of Sweden's leading soccer players is one of the plans resulting from the almost unprecedented activity and the rising nation-wide interest in athletics now manifested in Sweden which has gained impetus following the successes of the Swedish team during the Olympic games.

During the past summer the Swedish soccer team won 11 out of 12 international federation matches played. In November the Swedish team will make a southern tour, and expects to meet strong opponents in Austria, Italy and other countries.

The trip to America next summer will be made, providing suitable financial arrangements can be arranged to cover the expenses of the players. The Swedes have already had the honor of meeting three different American teams on their own grounds and now hope to carry the game into the enemy's country.
